No more Scab in Sheep.

The undersigned an old sheep farmer in the south of this province after many years of study in the pernicious infirmity of the scab, has at last discovered an infallible remedy against a sickness that in the body where it generally breaks out like a storm resisting all the remedies that to this time have been discovered.

This specific so simple in its application as great it is result, is preferable to all invented until now, it is cheaper than tobacco, and free from poisonous substances contained in all other remedies before invented.

With only one smoke of my specific there is sufficient for the Scab of 800 to 1000 sheep, and at the low price of 8 $00, i will facilitate all sheep farmers to recive their sheep in a perfect state of healthiness, to make known this remedy and induce farmers to prove it, I have determined to sell small packages at one $ at the which I hold at several years disposition who wants to prove its infallibility.

Instructions for its application will be given in the deposit of specific against the scab.

OUR POLITICAL CHAPTER.

Things are gradually improving, and bad symptom, diminishings nevertheless we cannot assure our European readers that the state of the River Plate republics is such as we could wish it. Neither the invasion of Uruguay by Flores, nor Peñaloza's revolt in Rioja, have come to a decisive issue, although in both cases the incendiaries have lost ground, and it is likely order will soon be restored. As we anticipated in our April review, the former will cause us much more trouble than the latter. The Ministers of England, France, Portugal and Italy suspecting (as is notorious) the sympathy of our Cabinet for the ex-Argentine General, went to visit General Mitre, and have denied audience contented themselves with a joint note which was, however, returned unanswered. Meantime Flores is valued as a Liberator by all the high officials and journalists of this city, while the foreign residents are unanimous in denouncing him a Filibuster.

The Rioja campaign is almost forgotten, as the locality is so remote and the habits of its people so vagabond that we begin to look on disturbances as one of its natural features. It appears General Urquiza while professing neutrality, secretly mounted the rebels, and appears by an intercepted letter. Deputy Cabral of Corrientes has therefore accused him before the National Congress, of high treason, but this last is no jurisdiction and even if the Federal Court were installed the Governor of Entre Rios might laugh at all attempts to bring him to justice.

The May festivals of independence engrossed public attention last week, and little heed is paid to the Rioja affair. Alsina's vote of censure on the President, for having inaugurated the Cordoba Railway; the motion was rejected by the committee of Deputies, and will bring ridicule on its author.

Two collections are on foot at present, but the requisite amounts have not been filled up; it is proposed to send a flag to Mexico, in appreciation of that republic struggling against a French dynasty, and also to present a gold medals to the Hanlon Lees bros, the ablest acrobats who have ever performed here.

Thanks be to God! our political section diminishes every day, while our industrial chapter grows in inverse ratio. The measures of Congress relative to railways, banking, customs' laws, etc, will be found under the latter heading.

INDUSTRIAL REVIEW.

The industrial advancement of the Argentine Republic is becoming daily more and more apparent, not only in the province of Buenos Aires, but even in the most distant parts, the march of progress is perceptible. We have many serious difficulties to contend with, no doubt. Want of capital, scarcity of hands, and revolution ary tendencies; but the last, thank Heaven, we hope is disappearing from amongst us. In the distinguished, high, last packet, we were obliged to notice, we are happy to say no one men of property or capital took part in the late, in the most convincing proof of the great peace reaction which has taken place.

In fact peace is now beginning to be a matter of fact, and no motive, or pretence, with what ever color of legality, will justify rebellion or revolution amongst us again. All the disturbances in the interior have been quelled; law and order prevail through the whole extent of this vast nation, and President Mitre's authority is respected even to the very foot of the Cordillera.

The natural wealth of this country is as yet unknown. Our population is so insignificant, and the pursuit of the inhabitants so nomadic, that up to this hour, although it is an admitted fact that the provinces around the gulf, river, copper, lead, coal, and even petroleum, no company has been formed, no individual enterprise undertaken, to explore this inexhaustible hidden wealth of the River Plate territories.

In Mendoza we hear that valuable coal mines have been discovered, in San Luis the gold washings in the streams are attracting attention: whilst from Cordoba, we remark, with undefeigned pleasure, the steady increase in its exports of copper.

The majestic Pamas, which is the Mississippi of South America, flows through countries the richest on the face of the globe, yet its banks being so far teeming with industry and crowded with villages, are to day, we regret to say, for most of their extent, but a low lying wilderness.

Two great events have recently occurred, which are destined, at no very distant period, to work the most incalculable benefits. The first is cotton growing which is now the rage throughout the interior. Consul Hutchinson of Rosario, whose indefatigable efforts have most materially assisted us, in the enterprise, has distributed a small seed which we sent him, and is now expecting the arrival of 15 quintals of seed from the Manchester Association: applications have been made to him by some members of Congress, not only for large quantities of seed, but also for the best estimates he can form of prices, to send into the interior Provinces, where plantations are going on on a large scale. President Mitre in his address on the opening of Congress also adverts to cotton growing in most flattering terms.

The second great event in our history is the Grand Central Argentine Railway, which Mr. Wheelwright has at last proved to be a reality. This railway passes from England by this packet; as the organ of all legitimate foreign enterprizes as the feeble chain pion of Peace, Industry, and reform; we have endeavored with all the zeal we could muster and flagrant abuses—we tender the true Argentine friend, the strides that have been made in the cause of the west, and the community we have the honor to represent. Sanguine indeed, are we all on this side of the Atlantic, but Mr. Wheelwright will more than justify as decided co-operation in England, is he has received support here.

Our foreign readers will learn, with pleasure, that this great work meets sympathy and support, which Mr. Wheelwright has received, namely, that over 7 millions sterling of the amount of shares have been already subscribed for the stock of his railway. The works of the Railway are progressing, under the able management of Mr. Crosbie, whom Mr. W. has left in charge. We have not the slightest fears of the completion of the line, and the aid of the Government and people of the country are determined to have it carried out.

The invasion of the Republic of Uruguay, by ex-General Flores, has tended more or less to disturb confidence, and we regret to say probability that the forces at the disposal of the Government of that country, will be sufficient to quell the lamentable disturbances which this raid has caused. we trust that a public example will be made of him, to deter others from following his pernicious lead. The disturbances in the Uruguay are still working, but owing to the political troubles, it is feared will not be able to fill their contracts.

Trade is at present rather dull, and exporters and great difficulty in getting produce. The imports of the Brazilian manufactures still continue heavy, and the serious balance of trade, which is and has been so long against us, is the principal cause of the depreciation of our paper currency, and the consequent high price of Gold.

The London and River Plate Bank, has applied to the Montevidean Government for the right of emission: by many it is supposed that the interference of the banks already established in that city, are two powerful to allow the concession of such a privilege, but we opine the contrary.

Rosario is daily making a rather good business in this city, and we have no doubt, if the manager pursues a sufficiently conciliatory conduct, he will ultimately secure the support of the Irish farmers, a very wealthy and industrial class in this country, and we believe, the heaviest shareholders in the National Bank of the country.

The Maua Bank, is likewise doing so far from being on the Brazilian frontier, that he is now but a few leagues from Palmando, and such is the state of alarm that even in the city, this evening they are erecting barricades, and had the marines from the Spanish man o' war landed, in fear of an attack from Flores. Flores's party, so far from robbing and assassinating, seem to have paid their way so far, and all the "propaganda" have been from the powers that be—on natives and foreigners indiscriminately.

This Flores invasion is a much more serious affair than you seem disposed to believe; and although I heartily join with you in condemning the revolutionising of a country so friendly to us as the Banda Oriental, and where such immense foreign interests are at stake—still you ought not to be led into the idea that Lamas, or any other commander here, will put down Flores very easily.

Saindaras are still working here, although necessarily on a much an extended scale as a month ago, from the taking up of the peons by the Government authorities.

It is said generally in Paisandu that Lamas has been defeated. Caraballo and Gauna, two chiefs of Flores, it is also said, slept in Paisandu, in Ca the general body (which is now encamped at Jerusalem). He is again in Rome according to his last letter: he has not yet met any more Irish Cardinals, nor has Monsignor Antonelli returned to "Monsignor." He affects to describe the Sixtine chapel during Holy Week, and has written some minor sonnets, besides an awful anachronism about Maunday Thursday. He describes the grand pontifical benediction of Easter Sunday to 100,000 persons, as occurring on that day, and makes the Pope wash the feet of 12 pilgrims. We do not deny H. F. V. is at Rome, but he was personally for Maunday Thursday since his letter bears date Good Friday and the benediction had not yet taken place. The pilgrims are 13 in number, but some guide-books incorrectly make them 12. The Pope, it is true, gives a blessing from St. Peter's "loggia" on Maunday Thursday, but it is not attended by over 100 persons, amongst H. F. V. exactly describes the grand benediction "Urbi et Orbi" of Easter Sunday, for season in which it is in less demand. Ounces which we quoted in our last circular as worth 440 8 are now worth 446 8, but the tendency of the market is rather in favor of a fall in this comparatively high rate.

Bullionary specie has not continued in good demand latterly and the price is slightly fallen to 21 5/8 - per Doubloon.

LOCAL EVENTS.

THE IRON CHEST.—No fewer than eight claimants have appeared for the wonderful box discovered in Paseo Julio, the contents of which are not yet publicly known. Mr. George Wilkins has a very plausible claim; but as the chest is supposed to be full of doubloons there is a dispute to the title.

Syntax has written us a note, suggesting it belongs to his friend Foster who was always expecting 2,000 gold ounces from the President of Paraguay, and the treasure was said to be lost in or near the Adauna.

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE.—On Friday evening, as a worthy foreigner was strolling through the plaza, with a faithful canine friend by his side, one of those indefatigable brats boys who are unceasing in their efforts to scrape up fines, followed our friend and took him and his dog to the Police office.

The indignant foreigner vainly remonstrated with the officials, and pointed out, in rather plain English, the monstrous absurdity of muzzling dogs in the middle of winter.

Our friend, we regret to say was locked up, and although every means were offered to pay the fine, the dog proprietor could not be liberated.

We are informed that our active Consul waited on the chief, but with equal success.

THE MERSEY.— The largest number of passengers ever known to have left our shores, in a British packet, the Mersey takes out to-day.

The well merited popularity of her able, gentlemanly commander, secures for the company, passengers of all nations.

The Englishman who was arrested for not having his dog muzzled, and fined 200 dollars, has been liberated.

The rain has been very general in both North and South, East and West, and has done the camps the greatest service.

Mr. Wheelwright embarked yesterday afternoon, on board the "Mersey".

A great robbery has taken place in the once Estancia, the robbers escaped.

The largest paper printed in South America, is not the Tribuna, but the Weekly Standard!

A lecture is about to be given by an English gentleman recently arrived on the subject of emigration.

A Hibernian House is about to be established in a day or two the public will be acquainted with the names of the gentlemen "who have turned up".

The Fire Brigade seems to have been completely extinguished owing no doubt to effect interference.

DIED.

At Moron on the 24th inst. in the 84th year of his age. Mr Bernard Kiernan Esq.

Mr Kiernan was one of the oldest Irish residents in this country, but neither time or distance could lessen his love for his native land his virtues caused his memory to be held dear and the pleasure of his acquaintance, and his old age was cheered by the love and affection of his respectable children, having received all the consolations of religion, and animated with the most lively faith he surrendered his soul into the hands of his creator without pain.
